

How can we use simple and or compound machines to make King's Dominion more efficient?

What is Force?

How do pushing and pulling make things move?

How are pushes and pulls alike and different?

Does the amount of force affect how far something moves?

What are simple machines?

What are the simple machines?

How many simple machines are there?

What's the main job of each machine?

What are some examples of simple machines?

What simple machines do you use every day.

What type of simple machine is the most common?

What are the key concepts of simple machines?

What are compound machines?

How do simple machines make compound machines?

How can you make a park more efficient?

What does efficient mean?

What areas of the park need to be more efficient?

How could a machine make the park more efficient?