Assistive Technology Transition Summit

Location: Hybrid (Limited in-person seating at T/TAC VT office, Zoom virtual option available.)

Time: 3:30pm-5:00pm

Target Audience: Secondary students, educators, school administrators, related service providers, and families.

Event Information: The T/TAC at Virginia Tech will be hosting a hybrid panel discussion around the transition process for students with disabilities that use assistive technology from secondary to post-secondary institutions (primarily 2 and 4-year colleges). Attendees will have the opportunity to submit questions for panelists to respond to. Panelists will include institutional representatives from:

- Virginia Tech (including a current student that uses AT)

- The University of Virginia

- George Mason University

- Southern Virginia University

- Tidewater Community College

- Loudoun County Public Schools

- The Virginia Department of Aging and Rehabilitation Services (DARS)

Registration: Free and open now and can be accessed at: https://bit.ly/at-transition. Registration will close Friday, November 18.
