

Utilizing Small Group Activities in the Secondary English Classroom

Monday, July 10, 2017
from 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM
at the New Bridge Learning Center

This is a session to learn how to incorporate small group activities into secondary English Classrooms. Participants will "make it/ take it" and take home activities ready for Fall!

Audience: Secondary English teachers general education or special education responsible or initial or remedial instruction in reading for grades 6-12.

Cost: $10 (to cover cost of materials and a boxed lunch)

Speaker Information: Erica Basnight-Johnson has spent 21 years educating our youth. She has worked at every grade level, K-12. At the beginning of her career she served as an afterschool program director setting up remediation and ESL programs at Crestview Elementary and Woodville Elementary. She then moved to Fairfield Middle School where she taught reading and English 7 & 8. Mrs. Basnight-Johnson continued her learning while teaching English 10, 11, AP Language and Debate at Varina High School. She is currently the Educational Specialist for Secondary English, Reading and Language Arts in Henrico County.

Register online at:

<http://www.cvent.com/d/n5qldm/6X>

Henrico County Employees Discount Code: FREE710

If you have any questions please contact Christine Young at cyoung@vcu.edu or (804) 828-8151.

