

Tipping the Scales in Their Favor:

Your Role in Recognizing and Responding to Abuse and Neglect of Children with Disabilities

A multidisciplinary course that will answer the following questions for law enforcement, family members of children with disabilities, and the professionals who support them:

- How widespread is abuse and neglect of children with disabilities?
- Why are children with disabilities at greater risk of abuse and neglect?
- Why is it more difficult to identify abuse and neglect in children with disabilities?
- What is your role in identification and reporting of abuse and neglect of children with disabilities?

March 7, 2016

9:00a.m. to 12:00p.m.

Richmond Police Training Academy
1202 Graham Road
Richmond, VA 23220

Topics will include:

Understanding the Issues Surrounding Children with Disabilities

Featuring Vicki Beatty

Abuse and Neglect of Children with Disabilities

Featuring Ian Danielson and Mary Wilson

Your Role in Recognizing and Responding to Abuse & Neglect of Children with Disabilities
Featuring Amanda Green and Sgt. Faith Flippo

Who should attend?

Anyone working in:

Law enforcement

CASA programs

Child Protective Services

Children's Advocacy Centers

Community Services Boards

Education

Foster care

Guardians ad litem

Multidisciplinary Teams

PIC Credits for Law Enforcement and

Certificates of Completion (3 hours) will be available to all registered participants

To register online visit:

<https://redcap.vcu.edu/surveys/?s=E7MT7DA7MJ>

For further questions, contact Nicole Rada at ncrada@vcu.edu or 804-827-0200

Space is limited so register now!

