SAVE THE DATE!

Extensive Support Needs Professional Learning

March 9-10, 2027

SAVE the DATES March 9-10, 2027 for an opportunity to connect, learn, and apply practical strategies for effective instruction for students with extensive support needs.

Event Details

Who: Educators and related service providers supporting students with extensive support needs

Where: George Mason University - Science and Technology Campus, Colgan Hall

Why: Explore practical applications of assistive technology (AT), Specially Designed Instruction (SDI), High-Leverage Practices (HLPs) for students with extensive support needs, and classroom-ready VESOL and SOL resources and lessons.

What's New in 2027?

Flexible Registration: This event is a 2-day experience. Attend one day or both!

- March 9th - VESOL instruction
- March 10th - Bridging VESOL to SOL instruction

Registration Coming Soon!

Supporting Educators • Expanding Opportunities • Promoting Student Success